

Kiryu's ominous plans are revealed, along with the true nature of "Tokanoya, the Imaginary Country". A mysterious boy appears, a whole village is destroyed and a massacre is coming.

White dog in a field

There are many dog lovers. You could even say monomaniacs... I call myself "the most enthusiastic canine lover", but after reading cartoon letters from others, I find myself speechless. I ask myself if, yes or no, I remain at the highest step of the podium. (ad) And what is the conclusion?

CHAPTER 22
THE YOUNG MAN

The village is shroun
with compass!

It is on the police department reported.

And straight across the creek!

We don't know what we're facing here. It seems to grow!

Even
children!

All dead!

What if it kiss on your side?

Everyone is so sorrowful. Which means they were slaughtered
and in misery!

There are too many sorrowful
for all the heart
break in love

They were suddenly
born apart

Yes...

I don't think that a human did this

But why is he naked?

It seems that he had a case of amnesia caused by the traumatic events he survived. The details of what happened are still a mystery...

Everyone is talking about it...

But it's a tragedy - 40 people killed in one night.

don't they still hope for precise details about what happened

I'm trying to update the class notebook.

Don't read the morning news yet!

OK!

investigation division of N confirms their desire for precise information into the circumstances of this tragedy and of it's resolution that we are in the height of the information season and it is not for specialists are speculating that other wild beasts could have expert. This kid you have on the helicopter is not "Macho Tarent"

He's someone else!

CHAPTER 24
MIMIC

It wouldn't be surprising
That an alien war come by on the human world should take on a human shape.

We already know that Call 28 is able to offer infinite
room to shape
space and time.

By
nature, Call 28 is on the human level.

It probably is surprised

Are you saying that that day?

I don't understand.

But that happens.

Some rampaged only after being used as target
by bullies.

Why does it
hate humanity
so intensely?

This is impossible.

I can't believe
it.

LETTERS FROM DOG LOVERS

Since I began corresponding with dog lovers, I've received many letters with photos. I'd like to share some of them with you...

Jon Tsujimoto has sent several hundred photographs and videos. His wolfhounds Blues and Mycha, really look like 23. I phoned him to ask for details and learned quite a lot (but I won't write about it here. I think you would find it too boring...)

Hide Yumura, Baskinche
Can you see that the colors of his eyes are different?
A very pretty heterochromia

Hide Yumura, Ruo
I hope to adopt that but better touched me She seems very sympathetic...

Plumette, Lolita, Yumura
He is a Alaskan Malamute and pulls a sled. (That's what Mrs. Santa wants) He has a very soft glance and looks very happy. I imagine that his family hugs him often

Yumura, Tishahook, Cygnar
He comes from Galla Tishah in Alaska. He is a male Alaskan Malamute, very gentle. (According to what they write.)

Yumura, Enchido, Rumi
He is also a very energetic self-motivated

Furze One, Tim
Why do Siberian Huskies have such extraordinary eyes?
They're beautiful.

Karen Tre, Rumi

He is a dog that I like a lot. I don't know why but I find them charming. Not small ones but the ones want to come for him.
